

Lead Agency Name	Award	Lead Agency Description	County	Type
Alameda County Behavioral Health	$937,322	Alameda County Behavioral Health has planned to certify peers with crisis specialization, upgrade communications devices for an existing team, and increase outreach and data capacity for the crisis system.	Alameda	Implementation
Amador County Behavioral Health	$607,939	This project's goals are to expand available hours of the current Amador County Mobile Support Team and provide training (e.g., crisis intervention, peer specialist certification) to all team members.	Amador	Implementation
Berkeley Health Housing and Community Services Department, City	$1,000,000	This project's activities include obtaining three new medical transport vehicles and equipment, staffing enhancement to Specialized Care Unit (SCU) teams, and training opportunities for SCU teams and area first responders.	Alameda	Implementation
Butte County Department of Behavioral Health	$5,000,000	This grant allows the Chico Police Department and Butte County Sheriff's Office South County and North County Co-Responder teams to provide response services 24/7 and establish additional teams in Paradise and Oroville.	Butte	Implementation
Contra Costa, County of	$3,506,814	Contra Costa's goal is to expand regional mobile crisis services to be available to anyone, anywhere, and at any time to ensure consistency with the community-designed A3 initiative.	Contra Costa	Implementation
Fresno County	$753,437	This funding expands Fresno County's Crisis System of Care (FCCSC) to ensure follow-up for all crisis encounters with individuals 25 years of age and younger and provides up-to-date training for the FCCSC in best practices for youth in crisis.	Fresno	Implementation

Glenn County	$500,000	Grant funds support the purchase of two vehicles for use as mobile clinics in the community 24/7. Activities include crisis assessment, de-escalation, and treatment services.	Glenn	Implementation
Hoopa Valley Tribe	$1,000,000	Grant funds support the purchase of a mobile medical unit and the creation of a new mobile crisis team for responding to crisis in collaboration with law enforcement and other first responders.	Humboldt	Implementation
Humboldt, County of - Behavioral Health Branch	$985,063	Humboldt County's CCMU is expanding behavioral health support, prioritizing services to individuals 25 and younger. Activities include screening, assessment, crisis de-escalation and resolution, care coordination, discharge planning, child and family team meeting facilitation, and peer support.	Humboldt	Implementation
Imperial County	$3,999,620	Imperial County's CCMU services in the community (including local hospitals, outpatient clinics, and colleges) target people experiencing psychiatric or emotional distress of any age, with emphasis on individuals ages 25 and younger.	Imperial	Implementation
Los Angeles County	$51,805,000	LA County is adding 50 new mobile crisis teams and enhancing 30 existing teams to provide a reliable default alternative to law enforcement response for individuals experiencing behavioral health emergencies.	Los Angeles	Implementation
Madera County	$3,895,070	Madera County is adding two new mobile crisis teams and enhancing an existing team, with a focus on reducing psychiatric hospitalizations, preventing involvement with criminal justice, and delivering quality services.	Madera	Implementation

Marin County	$1,954,523	In Marin County, CCMU funding supports infrastructure development, expanding the number of mobile crisis response teams from one to two. Several one-time purchases, as well as ongoing infrastructure costs, are included.	Marin	Implementation
Mariposa County	$1,699,205	Mariposa County Behavioral Health's CCMU Team responds to crisis incidents in the community, jail, schools, hospitals, and other areas where crisis services are needed.	Mariposa	Implementation
Mendocino County	$3,742,392	Mendocino County is expanding current mobile crisis services, including developing additional crisis teams, to provide mental health crisis response through the rural and remote county.	Mendocino	Implementation
Merced County	$2,000,000	Merced County is addressing the demand for timely youth crisis and aftercare services. Funding supports the hiring of a mental health worker and two peer support specialists, the purchase and maintenance costs of three vehicles, and training and expansion of capacity and quality service.	Merced	Implementation
Mono County	$690,000	In partnership with law enforcement and emergency medical services, this project supports mobile crisis response in all the remote corners of frontier Mono County.	Mono	Implementation
Monterey Health Department Behavioral Health Bureau (MCBH), County of	$999,117	Monterey County's project includes a centralized mobile crisis call center to triage calls and dispatch CCMU teams; expansion of mobile crisis field operation infrastructure, including vehicles and equipment; and providing training.	Monterey	Implementation
Napa County	$500,000	The Napa County Mobile Response Team is designed to provide mobile mental health crisis intervention and support to children and adults in the community.	Napa	Implementation

Nevada County	$1,000,000	The new Nevada County Mobile Response Team is designed to provide mobile mental health crisis intervention and support to children and adults in the community.	Nevada	Implementation
Placer County	$4,000,000	Placer County's development of an integrated mobile crisis system includes additional staff, increased training, and a focus on coordination. It aims to be more readily available in the southern, most populated, area of the county, and expand to mid-county areas that have also been hard-hit by the pandemic.	Placer	Implementation
Riverside University Health Systems	$8,200,000	Riverside University Health System-Behavioral Health is expanding mobile crisis service teams throughout Riverside County and increasing access to existing mental health and/or substance use disorder services.	Riverside	Implementation
Sacramento County	$2,709,199	Sacramento County, which has relied on law enforcement and emergency departments to address the needs of individuals experiencing a mental health crisis, is adding three behavioral health teams with the ability to respond 24/7.	Sacramento	Implementation
San Bernardino County	$7,703,122	San Bernardino County is adding 6 new teams and enhancing 18 existing teams. The project includes a crisis contact center to triage all behavioral health crisis calls from a central location and dispatch mobile crisis units strategically placed throughout the county.	San Bernardino	Implementation
San Diego, County of	$18,000,000	San Diego County's project includes 18 new crisis response teams with 24/7 coverage. Goals are increasing health equity, diverting individuals from higher levels of care, increasing safety, and reducing law enforcement interventions.	San Diego	Implementation

San Francisco County	$1,977,500	The program expands the quality, scope, and impact of San Francisco's comprehensive crisis services, which provides mobile crisis response for all ages. The project includes a new mobile health clinic, allowing psychiatric nurses to address minor medical issues during mobile crisis field visits.	San Francisco	Implementation
San Joaquin County Behavioral Health Services (BHS)	$1,934,581	The goal of this expansion is to enable faster response from clinical teams to effectively deescalate and stabilize individuals on the verge of a psychiatric crisis, preventing inappropriate arrest or hospital admission. Expansion also enables behavioral health systems and law enforcement to support each other.	San Joaquin	Implementation
San Luis Obispo Behavioral Health Department	$1,000,000	San Luis Obispo County's CCMU project is designed to expedite dispatch, expand coverage, and improve responses, thereby reducing the impact of crises among students and those in underserved rural areas.	San Luis Obispo	Implementation
Santa Barbara County Behavioral Wellness	$1,000,000	This program is designed to expand Santa Barbara's efforts to serve youth and young adults up to age 25 by increasing hours to nearly 24/7 and providing additional coverage in West County.	Santa Barbara	Implementation
Santa Clara County Behavioral Health Services Department (BHSD)	$2,535,948	This program is designed to enhance 15 behavioral health mobile crisis teams by providing access to Peoplesoft software, a shared platform used by crisis dispatch and referral sources. Funding also provides training and staffing to support the teams in the field.	Santa Clara	Implementation
Santa Cruz County	$3,946,123	This program is designed to expand the continuum of crisis services for residents of Santa Cruz County, particularly those age 25 and younger, providing high quality, evidence-based practices through field-based mobile models.	Santa Cruz	Implementation

Shasta County	$1,000,000	Shasta County's CCMU program is designed to enhance coordination of existing teams while adding a unit. The enhancement deepens the scope and expands the range of crisis and non-crisis mobile response in Shasta's communities.	Shasta	Implementation
Solano County	$1,000,000	The Solano County CCMU program is designed to expand mobile crisis services to a larger geographic area, by increasing the number of service providers and improving infrastructure for long-term sustainability.	Solano	Implementation
Sonoma, County of	$2,498,899	Collaboration across Sonoma County is designed to expand response to community members in crisis by providing quality, evidence-based practices through field-based models, with a focus on the most vulnerable populations.	Sonoma	Implementation
Stanislaus County Behavioral Health & Recovery Services (BHRS)	$3,999,988	This program is designed to enhance the current crisis program within the Modesto Police Department by embedding two new CCMU teams with patrol officers, and implement a new crisis program within the Stanislaus County Sheriff's Office by embedding two new CCMU teams with patrol deputies.	Stanislaus	Implementation
Trinity County Behavioral Health Services	$496,174	The new mobile unit is designed to provide confidential crisis triage and telehealth linkages at schools, after-school events, and in the community, with staff connecting individuals to hospitals, outpatient, or follow-up care.	Trinity	Implementation
Tulare County Health and Human services Agency Behavioral Health Branch	$4,000,000	Funding is allocated to supervisory and clinical support for mobile crisis units, annual and specialized intervention and suicide prevention training for clinical staff, mobile crisis team telehealth, and other equipment needs. Also included is outreach and engagement with agency partners and stakeholders.	Tulare	Implementation

Tuolumne County	$664,948	Tuolumne County is expanding its Crisis Assessment and Intervention Program workforce by 3 FTE, including relief peer specialists and behavioral health workers, to support dispatch and provide mobile crisis response. The project also includes outfitting the crisis mobile response team with technologies needed to provide crisis services, connect people to additional resources, and facilitate access to the department's electronic health record system.	Tuolumne	Implementation
Ventura County Behavioral Health	$758,848	Ventura County Behavioral Health's Transitional Age Youth Rapid Response Team is composed of a behavioral health clinician, community service coordinator, and peer specialist. It is designed to provide clinical crisis intervention services for transitional age youth.	Ventura	Implementation
Yolo County Health and Human Services Agency	$1,856,000	CCMU funding supports staffing and covers the expenses of vehicle purchase and modification. Yolo also receives SB82 funding for youth services and is combining funding sources to meet the growing need in the community. The CCMU grant also allows Yolo County to purchase mobile device management software to allow crisis workers to access client data securely from their mobile devices. Other activities include a telehealth contract to provide access to charting and patient history as needed and a system update to the County's EHR system.	Yolo	Implementation

Calaveras	$50,000	Calaveras County's project includes strategic planning with community partners and creating an action plan for a sustainable mobile crisis team to serve this small rural county.	Calaveras	Planning
Del Norte	$187,450	Del Norte is conducting a community needs assessment, convening stakeholder workgroups, and developing an actionable plan with the goal of building a mobile crisis unit.	Del Norte	Planning
El Dorado	$200,000	El Dorado is developing an action plan for community crisis response to prevent and divert individuals from the emergency department and criminal justice system.	El Dorado	Planning
Inyo	$200,000	With community collaboration, Inyo is developing an action plan to better serve clients in crisis, specifically youth clients under 25 years old and clients at risk of justice system involvement.	Inyo	Planning
Kings	$186,338	Kings County seeks to better understand psychiatric crisis among youth and young adults, using that knowledge to develop an action plan for mobilized crisis supports.	Kings	Planning
Orange County	$200,000	This grant supports coordination, assessment, building capacity, and completion of the Orange County Mobile Crisis Action Plan (OC-MCAP).	Orange	Planning

San Mateo	$200,000	San Mateo County is identifying gaps in crisis services for youth and young adults and developing an action plan to fill those gaps with mobile crisis services.	San Mateo	Planning
Siskiyou	$40,400	Siskiyou is assessing each quadrant of the county for crisis service needs and developing a mobile crisis action plan to improve behavioral health outcomes in the community.	Siskiyou	Planning
Sutter-Yuba Behavioral Health	$200,000	Sutter-Yuba Behavioral Health is collaborating with local partners and community stakeholders to develop an action plan for crisis mobile response system to serve youth.	Sutter	Planning
Tri-City	$200,000	Working with stakeholders and community partners, Tri-City is creating a community crisis needs assessment and designing a responsive child/youth mobile crisis services plan.	Los Angeles	Planning